THE LORD'S DAY AT HOME

If you are housebound or self-isolating at this time, please use these prayers to unite yourself with the worship of the Universal Church, and your own Parish, this Sunday. If alone, read or say these prayers quietly to yourself. If with another, or in a family, someone should read the Gospel, and others respond. It might be suitable to find a special, quiet place at home for your Sunday prayers.

Gospel

Matthew 5:1-12

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them: 'How happy are the poor in spirit; theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Happy the gentle: they shall have the earth for their heritage. Happy those who mourn: they shall be comforted. Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right: they shall be satisfied. Happy the merciful: they shall have mercy shown them. Happy the pure in heart: they shall see God. Happy the peacemakers: they shall be called sons of God. Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right: theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

Reflection

Today is a celebration of the "ordinary saints" – not the popes and bishops and miracle workers and missionaries of bygone ages, but the ordinary folk who have lived this life close to Jesus, taking for their model the vision he sets out in today's Gospel – the Beatitudes. They are in so many ways the opposite of what the world says brings lasting fame and fortune. But what we celebrate today is that there is a "fame and fortune" which outlasts anything this world can give: heaven. No one should ever say, "I can't be a saint." With the aid of the wonderful forgiveness of God, which Jesus constantly proclaims, we can overcome all things, so that planted in God's love and nourished by that same love, we may join that happy multitude already in heaven, fulfilling our God-given destiny by becoming saints ourselves.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in this Holy Sacrament of the altar.

I love you above all things and I passionately desire to receive you into my soul.

Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally,
come spiritually into my soul
so that I may unite myself wholly to you now and forever.
Amen.

A Simple Explanation of the Mass - Part XXI

This week we will continue our meditations of the Mass with the "Concluding Rite". The Concluding Rite of the Mass consists of a blessing and sending forth into the world. The priest raises his hand in blessing, the people sign themselves "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit," just as they did at the beginning of the Mass. "To bless God means to praise God for his goodness and wonderful gifts. To bless a person is an action requesting that God continue to extend his generosity. In this final blessing the priest prays that the greatest of all benefits may be given in abundant measure to those who have shared in God's Word and Christ's Body. Such an action upon departure is found in the New Testament when Christ, before being taken up into heaven, raised his hands and blessed the apostles (Luke 24:50)" [The Mystery of Faith, p121f] At the beginning of the Mass, we were enjoined to "Let us pray". Now we are instructed to "Let us act" - act as people touched by the Lord. We are sent forth to be the hands and feet of Jesus in the world. We are to be the bread of life for others. We are to share the Good News of God's love for all with others. We are sent forth to continue the saving work of Jesus in human history.

November Lists

Our Lists of deceased loved ones and family we be placed on the altar during the month of November so that we can keep them in our thoughts and prayers. The Church remembers all those who have died and gone before us marked with the sign of faith. The following traditional Catholic prayer asks that we might have the right attitude to death and be prepared whenever it comes:

Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, I give you my heart and my soul.
Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, assist me in my last agony.
Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, may I breathe forth my soul in peace with you. Amen.

PLEASE REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS THIS WEEK

STANDING ORDERS - PLEASE THINK ABOUT IT

The Parishes have taken quite a "knock" through the Lockdown when public Mass was not available for sixteen weeks. This has had a huge impact on our Parishes Finances. Please consider taking out a Standing Order?

It would be of great benefit to our Parishes.

Forms are available from the Parishes Office:

ardrossan@gallowaydiocese.org.uk or call 01294 464063.

Also, Paul McNulty will be happy to provide a form for St. Bride's. Many Thanks for all your support and generosity!

JUST FOR A LAUGH... A young woman brought her fiancée home to meet her parents. After dinner, her father asked the young man into his study for a chat. "So, what are your plans?", The father said. "I'm a theology scholar," the young man replied. "Admirable," the father said, "but what will you do to provide a nice home for my daughter?" "I will study and God will provide," the young man explained. "And how will you afford to raise children?", The Father asked. "God will provide.", said the young man. The men left the study and the mother asked her husband, "How did it go?" "Very well; I like him. He has no money or employment plans," the father said. "But on the other hand, he thinks I'm God."

✠ My Angel's Name

Once upon a time there was a child ready to be born. One day he asked God: "They tell me you are sending me to earth tomorrow, how am I going to live there being so small and helpless?" God replied, "Among the many angels, I chose one for you. She will be waiting for you and will take care of you." "But tell me, here in Heaven, I don't do anything else but sing and smile, that's enough for me to be happy." "Your angel will sing for you and will also smile for you every day. And you will feel your angel's love and be happy." "And how am I going to be able to understand when people talk to me, if I don't know the language that men talk?" "Your angel will tell you the most beautiful and sweet words you will ever hear, and with much patience and care, your angel will teach you how to speak." "And what am I going to do when I want to talk to you?" "Your angel will place your hands together and will teach you how to pray." "I've heard that on earth there are bad men. Who will protect me?" "Your angel will defend you even if it means risking its life." "But I will always be sad because I will not see you anymore." "Your angel will always talk to you about me and will teach you the way for you to come back to me, even though I will always be next to you." At that moment there was much peace in Heaven, but voices from earth could already be heard. And the child in a hurry asked softly: "Oh God, if I am about to leave now, please tell me my angel's name." "Your angel's name is of no importance, you will just call your angel: 'Mummy'."
