Easter Message from Bishop Nolan

The celebration of Easter is a celebration of hope, a celebration of light conquering darkness, a celebration of life triumphing over death, a celebration of the grace of God overcoming human frailty and sin. This year in particular at Easter we have the hope that the lockdown is coming to an end, that the vaccine is defeating the virus, and that the fear of being infected by covid is now fading away. Our lives have all been affected by the experiences of this past year. As we emerge from lockdown we recognise that we have been changed by the isolation from our families and friends, by the death of loved ones and the inability to mourn them properly, and by the financial uncertainty of perhaps losing our job or our source of income. Apart from covid, of course, there may be other problems we face in life. We just remembered in Holy Week the sufferings of Jesus as he carried his cross. We too have our cross to carry, we too suffer our Calvary. But Jesus, who suffered and died, rose to new life. There is hope even in time of suffering and trial, there is hope even in death. The resurrection Jesus gives us that hope. Just as light overcomes darkness so also the grace of God overcomes all human frailty, failure and sin. No matter what troubles we face in life may our celebration of Easter give us hope. +William Nolan, Bishop of Galloway

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in this Holy Sacrament of the altar.

I love you above all things and I passionately desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally,
come spiritually into my soul
so that I may unite myself wholly to you now and forever. Amen.

PLEASE TAKE YOUR COPY OF THE PARISH BULLETIN HOME WITH YOU.
THANKS!

Feed Your Soul - Renewing our Parish Communities

"Feed Your Soul" is a week-by-week series of thoughts and inspiration for the adventure of a lifetime! Every Sunday, we can be inspired by a short quote from the new Directory of Catechism. These reflections will feed your soul with a little inspiration, a little hope, and a little wisdom. Jesus wants to satisfy your hunger for... Joy, Great relationships, Peace, Purpose, and Life to the fullest. The only question left, then, is: Will you let him? Enjoy the first reflection: "All that the Church is, all that the Church does, finds its ultimate foundation in the fact that God wanted to reveal the mystery of his will by communicating himself to human beings... Revelation is an initiative of God's love and is directed towards communion... The novelty of the Christian message does not consist in an idea but in a fact: God has revealed himself... He is the complete manifestation of God's mercy and of the call to love that is in the heart of humanity.... Entering into communion with him and following him offers fullness and truth upon human life." [Directory 11-16]

We wish everyone at St. Bride's and St. Peter's a very happy
and Blessed Easter.

JUST FOR A LAUGH... Some Tommy Cooper Jokes

◆ Two Eskimos sitting in a kayak were chilly. They lit a fire in the craft, it sank, proving once and for all that you can't have your kayak and heat it.

◆ Man goes to the doctor, with a strawberry growing out of his head. Doc says 'I'll give you some cream to put on it.'

◆ A man takes his Rottweiler to the vet. 'My dog is cross-eyed, is there anything you can do for him?' 'Well,' said the vet, 'let's have a look at him' So he picks the dog up and examines his eyes, then he checks his teeth. Finally, he says, 'I'm going to have to put him down.' 'What? Because he's cross-eyed?' 'No, because he's really heavy'

✚ Feed My Sheep

The fishing boat is bobbing gently on the lake, a hundred yards offshore. Occasionally a wave slaps against its side though the lake is surprisingly still this morning. They labour all night to earn a living. But not this night. This night they haven't netted a single fish. On shore, the sleepy village of Capernaum is beginning to stir. On its rocky beach the fishermen can see the glow of a small fire. Occasionally a breeze brings them the aroma of fish cooking. Peter's stomach remembers its hunger, and his mouth can almost taste the savoury fish. Who's tending the fire? It's a man. Peter can see that much. He looks familiar, but Peter can't place him. Now the man brings up his hands and cups them about his mouth. A moment later his voice reaches the boat: "Boys," he shouts. "Put your nets out on the right side of the boat and you'll find some fish" "Every landlubber thinks he's an expert fisherman!" fumes Peter. But they are ready to put out the net again. Why not the right side this time? What do they have to lose? All of a sudden the stillness of morning is broken by the writhing of trapped fish and a tremendous tug on the net that, for a moment, threatens to capsize the boat. The men are instantly alert and position themselves to pull in the thrashing net. They must have caught a whole school of fish — on the right side of the boat! Peter looks up from his exertion to the man on the shore. John, too, is straining to see him. "It's the Lord!" shouts John. "It's Jesus!" The others are struggling with the net, but Peter doesn't care. He grabs his clothes, dives into the lake, and swims with powerful strokes until the water is shallow enough for him to run splashing the rest of the way. Dripping, he drops to his knees before Jesus — the risen Lord, the man he has spent three years following, emulating, serving. Jesus calls to the men — disciples with whom he has shared many meals. "Come, have some breakfast!" Jesus, the great Feeder of men is feeding them again this morning. Now Jesus calls him aside. "Do you love me Peter?" With pain, Peter remembers how three times he had vehemently denied Jesus just before his crucifixion. He can hardly look Jesus in the eye. He mumbles, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." "Peter, feed my sheep," says Jesus. Three times Jesus asked Peter to reaffirm his love — once for each time Peter had denied him. Three times Jesus reaffirms Peter's call to ministry. Jesus not only forgives Peter, he restores him fully to his confidence. Jesus is talking about spiritual food — teaching, praying, leading, exhorting, serving. Jesus is asking for Peter's love, but with that love, obedience too. "Yes, I love you, Jesus," says Peter clearly, lifting his eyes to meet the Master's. "Then feed my sheep," says the great Feeder of men. "Peter, I need you to feed my sheep for me." "Yes, Lord, of course I will," whispers Peter, as his eyes flood with tears. "You can count on me."
