✠ Mustard Seeds

Here is a man who was born in an obscure village, the child of a peasant woman. He grew up in another village. He worked in a carpenter shop until He was thirty. Then for three years He was an itinerant preacher. He never owned a home. He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He never had a family. He never went to college. He never put His foot inside a big city. He never travelled two hundred miles from the place He was born. He never did one of the things that usually accompany greatness. He had no credentials but Himself... While still a young man, the tide of popular opinion turned against him. His friends ran away. One of them denied Him. He was turned over to His enemies. He went through the mockery of a trial. He was nailed upon a cross between two thieves. While He was dying His executioners gambled for the only piece of property He had on earth - His coat. When He was dead, He was laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend. Twenty long centuries have come and gone, and today He is the centrepiece of the human race and leader of the column of progress. I am far within the mark when I say that all the armies that ever marched, all the navies that were ever built; all the parliaments that ever sat and all the kings that ever reigned, put together, have not affected the life of humanity upon this earth as powerfully as has that one solitary life.

JUBILEE 2025 - PILGRIMS OF HOPE

Bishop Frank is asking you to pray more: the Glory Be prayer in preparation for the Holy Year of Hope.

*Glory Be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning
is now and ever shall be,
world without end.
Amen.*

What's the future of synodality after the synod?

The synod's 400-some participants from six continents, including more than 350 voting delegates, have just spent four weeks in Rome and Vatican City. However, even though we have soon the final document and the synod is over, synodality is not over. While "synodality" has often been described in metaphors such as "walking together," the synod's final document aims to provide a clearer definition. "In simple and concise terms, synodality is a path of spiritual renewal and structural reform that enables the Church to be more participatory and missionary, so that it can walk with every man and woman, radiating the light of Christ," it states. The final document addresses a wide array of topics, including the responsibility of the baptised, the role of consultative bodies such as bishops' conferences, women's leadership in the church and the importance of missionary discipleship. Now that the assembly is over, it goes back to the local level. The preliminary Final Document is available for downloading on our Parish Websites.

JUST FOR A LAUGH... 🤔😄😄

♦ An Ardrossan woman was arrested for stealing. When she went before the judge, he asked her, "What did you steal?" She replied, "A can of peaches." The judge asked her why she had stolen them and she replied that she was hungry. The judge then asked her how many peaches were in the can. She replied five. The judge then said, "I will give you five days in jail." When her husband heard this, he stood up and asked the judge if he could say something. The judge said, "What is it?" The husband said, "She also stole a can of peas."
